

Monkey Baa Theatre for Young People Ltd
Milli Jack and the Dancing Cat

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

Freight Requirements

For freighting the production requires a 20 foot dry cargo container inside cubic capacity 32.8 cubic metres (1,158 cubic feet).

Set

The Set is made up of a revolving 'house', a fountain/garbage tip, two long flats representing the hills and the town which are secured with A frames and sandbags, and freestanding tree and a small park bench. The musician's equipment is also pre set on stage.

Stage Requirements

The production is built ideally for a Proscenium Arch Stage 10 x 10 metres (32 x 32 feet).

Lighting Requirements

Please refer to the lighting plan.

Sound Requirements

In house dual CD sound system. Audio playback from two CD players. If the theatre has CD players that are auto pause, i.e. Pause at the beginning of each track, this is ideal! Monkey Baa travels with a body microphone and three plate microphones.

Crew

For bump in, 2 crew familiar to the venue to assist stage manager bump in set, sound and focus lights. Two crew required for bump out.

Crew Performance Requirements

One crew to operate lights. Stage Manager will operate sound.