Do you believe theatre can transform young lives?

The Theatre Unlimited Circle is a community of supporters passionate about making live theatre accessible across Australia. By joining, you'll bring theatre to young people who are missing out, inspiring creativity, connection and a lasting love for the arts.

Your support ensures more young people, no matter their circumstances, experience the joy of theatre and the power of stories.

Why join?

- Connect with others who share your vision for empowering young people and sharing a love of the theatre.
- Receive regular updates showing the impact of your support.
- Invitations to exclusive events, including behind-the-scenes access and artist talks.
- Special tickets for your family members to see Monkey Baa's productions as a family.

“As a grandmother, I cherish creating memories with my grandchildren – from telling stories to watching their faces light up at the theatre.”
